RULES

Match director will appoint a Range Safety Officer (RSO) to the shooting port. It is the match director's discretion to select port RSO.

- 1) Firearms are to remain unloaded and bagged or holstered until shooter is in the port and given the load and make ready command by the RSO.
- 2) Muzzle of the gun is to remain down range at all times.
- 3) Shooter's finger is to remain off the trigger until shooter is on target.
- 4) Shooters are expected to have loaded magazines and speed loaders before being called to the line.
- 5) Starting position is low ready and finger is off the trigger.
- 6) Each time shooter steps into the port to shoot they will be limited to:
  - A maximum of 20 rounds.
  - A maximum of 2 plate rack setups.
  - A maximum of 3 minutes.
- 7) When you are in the port to shoot:
  - a) DO NOT unbag/unholster firearm until RSO gives you command to do so.
  - b) RSO will give the load and make ready command.
  - c) RSO will give command to begin shooting.
  - d) When shooting is finished: Drop magazine, show clear chamber or cylinder (RSO and shooter both verify chamber is clear), insert flag and slide forward.
  - e) Bag or holster firearm. At this time the shooter is able to leave the line.
- 8) Shooter goes to "back of line" to shoot again.
- 9) There will be one designated non-shooting port for shooters to handle firearms. If you intend to handle your firearm in this port you MUST notify the RSO. OTHERWISE THIS PORT IS TO REMAIN EMPTY. THERE IS ABSOLUTELY NO AMMO ALLOWED IN THIS PORT. LEAVE YOUR LOADED MAGS BEHIND.

RSO has final decision on safety matters! Do not argue! SAFETY IS EVERYONES JOB!
